Program Guide

Shalom America Worldwide

Radio-J's daily flagship program hosted by Phil Fink, a radio professional with over 50 years of on-air experience. Featuring the latest in Jewish music, news, entertainment, and information. Plus, interviews with authors, entertainers, newsmakers, politicians, analysts, and others. Daily features also include Micah Halpern's daily "Chop", an analysis of world events and news as it relates to Jews around the world, and the news from Israel via Israel National News.

Artist of the Day

Each day, host Shawn Fink places the spotlight on another influential Jewish music artist with an historical and musical retrospective of the artist's career

The Mix

Jewish music can take many forms, from Yeshivish rock to Klezmer, from adult contemporary to chassidische niggunim [tunes], and only The Mix brings all varieties of Jewish and Israeli music together in one place. Host Shawn Fink brings you the very newest tunes and sprinkles in all your old favorites as well, every Monday – Friday. Listen to The Mix without any interruption all day Saturday and throughout each Sunday.

Rock B' Ivrit

The freshest Israeli music: rock, Mizrahi, pop, metal, and dance and some of your favorite Israeli rock oldies, all presented without any DJs or commercials.

Shalom America Sunday

The Sunday edition of Shalom America, simulcast with WINT Radio in Cleveland, Ohio.

SingIL

Presented by IDC University in Israel, SingIL is a weekly trip through the latest in music from Israel and the occasional salute to an Israeli artist, hosted in English.

Newstand

Hear a different perspective of world events from IDC University students each week, as Newstand delves into the latest news affecting Israelis with commentary, analysis and special guest interview, interspersed with musical selections.

Sounds Jewish

Host Andy Muchin delves into every genre of Jewish music on each week's program, centered around a particular theme. In one program, you might hear a traditional klezmer piece, a stand-up comic routine from the 60s, Israeli hip-hop and the gentle tones of a singer/songwriter.

Radio-J.com will be off the air in observance of the first two and last two days of Pesach (Passover) beginning at 9pm (EDT) Friday, April 22, with broadcasts resuming at 10pm (EDT) Sunday, April 24, and again beginning at 9pm (EDT) Thursday, April 28, with broadcasts resuming at 10pm (EDT) Saturday, April 30.
